SAE J3061 is a cybersecurity guidebook for cyber-physical vehicle systems. It provides a framework and guidance for organizations to identify and assess cybersecurity threats and design cybersecurity into the entire development lifecycle of vehicle systems. The guidebook is based on the ISO/SAE 21434 standard and is intended to help automotive companies implement cybersecurity best practices throughout the development process.